

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Don and Betty Wynia exchanged their wedding vows on May 17, 1958, in Bon Homme County, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, Don and Betty Wynia settled on a farm near Springfield, South Dakota, where they raised and gave love to their three children, Jean, Mike and Steve, now Don and Betty have seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, Don and Betty have helped make South Dakota a great place to live and work; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognizes and commemorates the memorable milestones in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 17, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirteenth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.
